

Finally, an authentic voice of reason!

*From COMMERCIALS and NARRATION to MESSAGING
ON HOLD and AUDIOBOOKS, Bonnie Ausfeld can give your project a voice!*

Voiceover is one of those words that no one really knows how to spell. Maybe it's not a word at all, but two words: voice over. Or maybe it's supposed to be hyphenated: voice-over. In fact, maybe the correct term is actually voice talent, or voice performer, or even voice artist.

Bonnie Ausfeld, MA is all of these and more - an experienced, professional female voice talent who will lift your script off the page and bring it to life.

Bonnie is a graduate of the Creative Voice Development Group, where she honed her natural talent. She has also appeared on radio and television programs in New York and has been a professional motivational speaker for more than 20 years.

Clients particularly like Bonnie's unique sound, in addition to her warm and reassuring qualities and strong news delivery. She is known for her ability to make copy sound friendly and believable. Bonnie is not your typical "generic" announcer. Listen to her demos, and you'll agree Bonnie has a distinct sound like no other.

If you're looking for a real, easy to direct, quality driven female voice talent, who regularly produces world-class audio at competitive rates, contact Bonnie today.
